NEWSPAPERS GET

INSURANCE "ADS"

Newspapers will continue to be the chief medium used by the Canadian Life Insurance Officers' Association in presenting to the people of Canada the message of the institution of life insurance, it was decided by the meeting of the association in London, Ontario. A. N. Mitchell, vice-president and general manager of the Canada Life Assurance Co., was elected president of the association.

Running consistently for 18 years, the "life insurance service campaign," through the medium of newspaper advertising, has dealt with various services that life insurance is providing to policyholders, with the economic influence of life insurance as an institution, and with some scientific interpretations of the manner in which life insurance functions.

ROBERT BARNHILL PASSES

Another of the fast dwindling list of oldtimers passed on at a late hour on Wednesday evening, in the person of Robert Barnhill.

Mr. Barnhill had been enjoying fairly good health up until Saturday morning, when he suffered a stroke. From that time on he failed to recover consciousness and gradually weakened till the end came.

Mr. Barnhill was in his 78th year, and had been a resident of Blairmore for close on thirty years. He is survived by his wife and one son, Robert.

Funeral will take place from the Crows' Nest Funeral Home on Sunday next, with services at the United church promptly at 2:15 p.m. Service at the church will be conducted by Rev. A. E. Larkie, assisted by Rev. Roy Taylor, of Coaldale.

Funeral will be in charge of A. E. Ferguson, of the Crows' Nest Funeral Home.

CHRISTINA HOWE PASSES

Death has taken Christina, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Augustus Howe, who passed away about 2 o'clock this morning, following a brief illness.

"Tina" reached her nineteenth birthday two months ago. Some years ago she was stricken with blindness and never recovered her sight.

She is survived by her parents, and sister and brother, Thelma and Billie, with whom sympathy is extended.

As we go to press we learn that funeral will take place Sunday afternoon, with service at the United church at 4 o'clock.

WILLIAM FENWICK PASSES AT CROSSFIELD

An old-timer of the Crossfield district, William Fenwick, aged 76, passed away at his Crossfield home on Tuesday evening, after an illness of about four months.

Mr. Fenwick was born in Felton, Northumberland, England, and came to Canada many years ago. He took up farming in the Crossfield district 27 years ago.

He is survived by his wife, Isabel; three sons, Harry and Arthur, of Crossfield, and William, of Springfield, Alberta; and two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Bartlett, of Blairmore, and Mrs. T. Hughes, of 335 Eleventh Avenue East, Calgary.

The remains were laid to rest at Crossfield yesterday afternoon.

Henry Zak was confined to his home through illness for a few days.

JURY RETURNS VERDICT

Following is the verdict returned by the jury enquiring into the death of Robert James Glendinning at Coleman:

"That he came to his death at 9:05 p.m. on May 28th, at the rear of Joe Jenkins' residence in West Coleman, death resulting from hemorrhage of the lungs, caused by a bullet wound from a .22 calibre rifle in the hands of a person at present unknown."

"We suggest that the regulations governing discharge of firearms within town limits be strictly enforced. Further, that the age limit for use of firearms, including .22 rifles, should be raised, and that all firearms should be registered. We also suggest the danger resulting from careless shooting might be reduced by owners of land in the vicinity of town prohibiting all shooting on their property within a distance of two miles from town."

RED CROSS APPEAL

Response to the $20,000 appeal for funds made by the provincial Red Cross at June 10th reached only $4,277.94, and unless greater response is forthcoming soon, it may be necessary to curtail much of the good work planned.

Among the most liberal subscribers, we note the following: Masonic lodges $140; Coleman Red Cross branch $50; village $22; school districts $208.40; municipal districts $100; towns $61; collection boxes at banks $29.44; Menomies, $10.20 and Red Deer Red Cross branch $50.

Part of the work being carried for by the Red Cross includes 2,571 crippled children treated to date, many of them for very extensive periods; 81 crippled children admitted during the year, of which 69 were orthopaedic cases and twelve medical cases. These crippled children came from Alton, Barons, Big Valley, Brooks, Calgary, Cardston, Champion, Chancellors, Chinook, Cremona, Crossfield, Hemaruk, Hillcrest, Irma, Iron Springs, Kevisville, Diamond City, Elora, Evelyn, Ghost Pine Creek, Glenwood, Heimsburg, Lethbridge, Manyberries, Munster, Namps, Pincher Creek, Red Deer, Radium, Rochford Bridge, Staveler, Sedalia, Smoky Lake, Stettler, Strathmore, Slangnessy, Sylvan Lake, Trochu, Vulcan and Youngstown, representing the following nationalities: Canadian, American, English, Scottish, Hungarian, Russian, Finnish, German, Danish, Czechoslovakian, Lithuanian, Ukrainian, Polish, Swedish, Irish and Welsh.

The hospital school is maintained with a skilled tutor having full teaching qualifications and a particular knowledge and realization of the limited abilities of such cases as infantile paralysis. The cost of this department last year was $15,000. It is the only institution in the province giving this highly specialized hospital care free of charge to crippled children.

The marriage of Miss Vernon Travis, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Travis, of Natal, to Mr. William Phillips, also of Natal, took place in Blairmore last week end. Mr. Phillips is a truck driver for the Trites-Wood Co. at Michel.

The Coleman Legion carnival, held Saturday and Monday nights, was very largely attended and a success in every particular. The grand prize, a beautiful four-piece modernistic walnut bedroom suite, was won by Mrs. Amos, of Bellevue.

Following an illness of several weeks, Miss Jennie Farano passed away in the Coleman hospital on Sunday evening. She was born in Michel in 1908, and had resided in Coleman for the past thirteen years. She is survived by her parents, four sisters and two brothers. The remains were laid to rest Wednesday afternoon.

CANUCKS FIFTH STRAIGHT WIN

Playing at the Blairmore stadium, the Canucks won their fifth straight game at the expense of the Columbus Club Cardinals. Both teams opened with heads-up baseball, and it was not until the fourth inning that the Canucks tallied the first run. The Cards made it all square in the fifth, when they got a man across the home plate. From here till the seventh inning it was nip and tuck, when the Club boys counted two more runs to put them in the lead 3-1. The Canucks then came back strong in the eighth, making it 5-3, and then went on to add two more in the ninth to clinch the game 7-3. The Canucks were credited with four double plays, while the Club boys were chalked up with ten errors.

Batteries: C.C.—J. Dobe, Giacomo, Chala and Kubik; Canucks—Marcelin and Gates.

Ted's Cards Lose Double Header

Playing a double header at the local stadium on Sunday afternoon, Ted's Cards came out on the short end of both games. The first game, at 2 o'clock, with the Cards opposing Cowley Bronks, the Cowley boys took the game with brilliant play 10-7. Batteries: Blairmore—Allan and Pozzi; Cowley—Faminoff and Porter.

In the nightcap the Cards entertained the Coleman Cubs. The Cards shutout the lineup, but to no effect. Errors were again a vital factor in the losing Cards. A home run by Blas was the Cardinals' only tally. Allan on the mound was very good, but lacked the support of his fellow teammates. The final score was Coleman 7, Cards 1. Batteries: Blairmore—Allan and Blas; Coleman—Fergotti and Binda.

Columbus Club Loses to Natal Miners

Leading the Natal Miners 8-4 in the last inning, the Miners staged a last inning rally and came back strong to push 5 runs across the plate to rob the Club boys of a victory to the score of 9-8. The game was fast and displayed some very nice baseball on the part of both clubs. Batteries: Blairmore—Connors, Kubik and Chala; Natal—Krahl and Krall.

Sixth Straight For Canucks

The Canucks added another victory to their list at the expense of the Elk Valley Senators, who were outclassed in all stages of the game, and the Canucks were never in danger at any time. The final score was Canucks 15, Senators 0. Elk Valley got one hit off Yagos, Blairmore pitcher. Batteries: Blairmore—Yagos and Vejtrav; Elk Valley—Lemme and Sadlich.

Ted's Cards Beat Coleman Cubs

Playing at West Coleman school grounds, Ted's Cards took the long end of a 5-4 count in a softball game on Wednesday night. Hits were pretty well scattered and about even for both clubs. Fergotti, Coleman pitcher, was sent to the showers by the Blairmore boys. Batteries: Blairmore—Blas and Allan; Coleman—Fergotti and Binda.

Gordon Porter, proprietor of the Strathcona Hotel in Edmonton, has purchased the South Edmonton Commercial Hotel. His son-in-law, David Petrie, has been appointed manager. Petrie was for a time manager of the Sawfury store at Pincher Creek.

NEWS FROM EDMONTON

(By T. B. Windross)

Edmonton, June 15.—It was of more political than administrative importance that the members of the Alberta government were back in Edmonton as this week opened, nominally at least performing the work for which they draw their cabinet salaries, instead of campaigning for more power in another province.

The overwhelming defeat which swept over them in Saskatchewan last Wednesday left marks which were plainly visible to political observers in Alberta. On top of the dreadful disillusionment which has come to Premier Aberhart and his camp followers in the past year, through the complete failure of the "true blue" pledges, the fast-shrinking membership in the Social Credit league and the attempt to use the former Recall act, now comes the Saskatchewan avalanche.

It was hardly to be expected, of course, that Mr. Aberhart and the others would be at a loss for words. Aberhart himself could not be found for a full day after the election, although it was known that plans had been laid for a triumphal march, and bonfires on every hill, if Saskatchewan elected a Social Credit government. But when the Alberta premier came back to Edmonton, he had nothing to say until many hours later, and then issued a statement talking about the "highly oiled machine" of the opposition parties. They were not so "highly oiled" that the party leaders undertook to select the candidates over the heads of the constituents, it was commented here.

One of the features of the Social Credit campaign was the use of "storm-troopers"—a gang of men who were armed with the use of "special police" when Mr. Aberhart spoke at Melville, Saskatchewan, the night before election. These men, who wore arm-bands in the same fashion as the Fascist armlets, but inscribed with the words "special police," and who had their own "chief of police," dragged from the meeting five men who wanted to ask the premier questions, and allegedly beat them and choked at least one. It was claimed at the time that the gang had permission from the R.C. M.P. to "control" the meeting, but it later developed that there was no such authorization. The Saskatchewan attorney-general announced at the week end that action would be taken against those responsible. Aberhart walked silent from the platform while his "special police" dragged away the men who had gone from Calgary to demand that the three members of the Alberta legislature's "special relief committee" be sent back to Alberta to do their jobs.

In Edmonton the whole episode was taken as a shining example of the methods which Aberhart could be expected to adopt if he was given unquestioned dictatorial rights in this province, and his own police force.

The Alberta government did some hard swallowing last week, and dropped the appeals to the privy council against the rights of federal disallowance of provincial legislation and of the lieutenant-governor to reserve assent to provincial legislation. In dropping these appeals, the Aberhart government, in effect, threw overboard all its bombastic claims of the past to "sovereign state" privileges in Alberta.

At the same time, in what was regarded here as an attempt at face-saving, the premier said he wanted all the other provinces to join with him in organizing a campaign against such novelties as the federal government and the lieutenant-governor. But only the day before Premier Duff Pattison, of British Columbia, had declared, regarding the whole situation, that Aberhart had done more than anyone to destroy the sovereign rights of provinces.

Despite the fact that federal legislation to nationalize the Bank of Canada has already been announced, the Alberta government last week, through Provincial Treasurer Solon Low, has begun an attack on the central bank, switching over from its attack on the chartered banks in view of the real danger of many branch banks withdrawing from Alberta. It was a diplomatic change of front, but observers here believe that his worth as propaganda for the benefit of Alberta voters will be lost. And in the meantime, Mr. Aberhart was awaiting from Prime Minister Mackenzie King some reply to his letter asking that the banks be not allowed to close their branches.

The Ottawa Citizen, which has had Social Credit leanings for years past, because its editor is a disciple of Major C. H. Douglas, did not offer Aberhart much sympathy. Regarding the federal government's move to nationalize the Bank of Canada, the Citizen said:

"The dominion government's new step should strengthen control of the national credit in accordance with the will of parliament, but there is no reason to regard it as tending to substitute the state for private enterprise in the business of commercial banking. Nor should it ever be necessary to compete with the private banks. They are as well managed in private hands as the government could desire."

It was expected here, therefore, that Low's charge, delivered over the air under the name of Social Credit, that the Bank of Canada is governed by "international money barons" would fall on doubting ears in Alberta.

Outlook Is Promising

Best Prospect Since For Agriculture In Canada Since 1930

J. S. McLean, president of Canada Packers, Ltd., in an article appearing in a recent issue of the Toronto Stock Exchange Monthly Bulletin, states that, owing to the large British quota for bacon accorded by the Ottawa agreement, hogs are selling at high prices and are getting a producer a large profit. The outlook is that the high price level will be maintained.

"In view of the prospect of a high price is somewhat less assured. World production will probably be greater than last year. It seems certain United States will have a substantial surplus.

"But the world carryover of hard wheat of the Canadian type was extremely light and is expected to be likely for the Canadian crop, even although that crop is much larger than in recent years.

"As to cattle, the outlook for 1938 is distinctly better than for 1937. On cattle put into the feed lots last fall the farmers have lost money. But recently prices have been firmer. One of the hopes is that in the trade agreement now being negotiated with the United States better terms may be secured for Canadian cattle entering that market.

"On the whole the outlook for agriculture in Canada in 1938 is more promising than for any year since 1930."

Sigmund Freud

Noted Author. Plans To Make His Home In England

Dr. Sigmund Freud, 82-year-old father of psychoanalysis, who for years has been trying to find out why men kill each other, came to London to make his home. He went into a self-imposed exile from Nazi Germany to finish a book on the Bible.

Despite his great age, the noted author appeared vigorous and willing to continue his work in a land removed from Austria, where he had lived for 70 years. His tall, slender figure still was upright. His dark, friendly eyes appeared to have lost nothing of their youthful brightness.

Freud arrived at Victoria station with his wife and was greeted by Dr. Ernest Jones, president of the International Psychoanalytical Association. He was driven away in an automobile from one end of the station while his son, Dr. Martin Freud, and a group of newspapermen, photographers and news reel cameramen awaited him at the other end.

Dr. Freud was driven directly to St. John's Wood, where a six-room house had been rented for him for a few months while he seeks government permission to remain in England for the remainder of his life.

Kind words are never lost—but they are frequently mislaid.

Story About Regular Blind-Out Customer And A Window Blind

It seems that clergymen's wives have regular customers for handouts of food. And our tale contains a thought for all who ponder on problems of public relations.

A story going around at the moment concerns the Spring house-cleaning, a regular customer and an ordinary window blind. The window blind was one of a dozen or more on a chair in the kitchen porch where a regular customer was given breakfast. The housewife was momentarily absent when the customer departed. An hour later, when the windows were ready, the blinds were sought. One was missing.

The regular on his next visit was told that no more food would be given out because the blind was missing. The regular denied the theft: the lady was adamant. He went to breakfast. But he was back the next day with the report that he had seen the missing blind in a second-hand store on Queen street and if the lady would give him 15 cents he could buy it for her. She gave him the fifteen cents.

Half an hour later he returned with the blind and thereby regained his former right to one breakfast per week or thereabouts.—Printed Word, Toronto.

Sounding Rocket

New Style Of Parachute To Bring Rocket Safely Back To Earth

A new art in parachuting has been developed in the desert in New Mexico to bring safely back to earth the great sounding rocket of Prof. H. Goddard of Clark University.

The early rocket ships usually destroyed themselves by falling to the earth after they had ascended a mile or more. This new ship comes down gently with a parachute.

The Goddard rocket is 18 feet long, about a foot in diameter, made of aluminum painted black, and capped with a shining conical head. It weighs only 84 pounds after its flaming oxygen-gasoline tail which drives it up is exhausted. At this point the cap opens and two parachutes come out. A small cone carries meteorological instruments sent up with the rocket. A large parachute with a spread of 10 feet is for the rocket's descent.

The speeds which this pioneer rocket ship has developed run up to 700 miles an hour.

THOUSANDS DROPPED

Thousands Islands Bridge

International Ceremonies To Be Held On Opening On August 18th

Governor Lehman of New York has accepted an invitation to attend the opening on Aug. 18 of the new Thousand Islands International bridge.

A delegation composed of Vice-Chairman Frank J. Martin of the Thousand Islands Bridge Authority, State Senator Perley A. Pitcher and Assemblyman Russell Wither presented him with the formal invitation, and the Governor said "yes" then and there.

President Roosevelt has conditionally accepted a similar invitation, and Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada has made full acceptance.

Other leading officials of the Federal and Canadian governments, New York State and the Province of Ontario will attend the international ceremonies dedicating the new $3,000,000 bridge system and celebrating the century of peace and good will between the U.S. and Canada.

Consisting of five separate spans and over eight miles of approaches and connecting roadways, the Thousand Islands International Bridge will cross the St. Lawrence river and scenic Thousand Islands from Collins Landing, N.Y., between Clayton and Alexandria Bay, to Ivy Lea, Ont., near Gananoque.

Good Man For Job

New Commander-In-Chief At Gibraltar Must Be Obedient

General Sir W. Edmund Ironside, who is to succeed General Sir Charles Harrington as Governor and Commander-in-Chief at Gibraltar, is a big man in inches, a stern disciplinarian, a linguist, and has eyes which can make any man quail.

The artillery defences of Gibraltar, seaward and landward, are vital. In the changed Spanish conditions Great Britain needs a first-class artilleryman at "Gib."

General Ironside learnt foreign language, like the famous expert Burton did. He put down on a postcard a list of words every day and memorized them. Thus he built up a vocabulary by short and intense concentration.—News of the World.

Indian Origin More Likely

Anticosti Comes From Word Meaning "Where Bears Are Hunted"

Anticosti, the island so much discussed at present, was called Assumption by Jacques Cartier when he first sighted it in 1534, and Assumption by a later explorer, but within the next hundred years had become generally known as Anticosti, from it, is said, an Indian word Natoucosti, meaning "where bears are hunted."

Derivation from Spanish words "the coast" has been suggested, but the Indian origin is more likely. —Toronto Star.

Fulfilled Early Promise

Sir Joseph Thomson One Child Prodigy Who Made Good

Youthful prodigies do not always bear out their early promise, but that certainly cannot be said of Sir J. J. Thomson, Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, to whom the coveted Kelvin Medal has been awarded for his eminent services to engineering science.

Sir Joseph entered Owens College, Manchester, at the age of 14, to take the engineering course. The event caused such a stir that the age limit was immediately raised!

But the boy quickly proved his worth, and since then 20 universities have elected him with degrees, J.C. learned societies with fellowships, nine others with medals.

He was one of the original holders of the Order of Merit, and he won the Nobel Prize for Physics 32 years ago—a record of distinction that is probably unique. —News of the World.

Germany Urges People To Eat More And Keep Well

Jamaica Starts Big Task

Will Spend $2,500,000 On "Back To The Land" Scheme

Acting Governor C. C. Woolley, of Jamaica, has announced the island's government would make the immediate up to $250,000 ($2,500,000) "back to the land" scheme as a step toward solving the colony's unemployment problem.

A special department with an experienced staff would be set up to devote its attention to the task. Land would be bought by the government and sold to the people on easy terms. Agricultural implements, seeds, roots and stock would be provided and the services of expert agriculturists would be available, he said.

Good Man For Job

New Commander-In-Chief At Gibraltar Must Be Obedient

General Sir W. Edmund Ironside, who is to succeed General Sir Charles Harrington as Governor and Commander-in-Chief at Gibraltar, is a big man in inches, a stern disciplinarian, a linguist, and has eyes which can make any man quail.

The artillery defences of Gibraltar, seaward and landward, are vital. In the changed Spanish conditions Great Britain needs a first-class artilleryman at "Gib."

General Ironside learnt foreign language, like the famous expert Burton did. He put down on a postcard a list of words every day and memorized them. Thus he built up a vocabulary by short and intense concentration.—News of the World.

Indian Origin More Likely

Anticosti Comes From Word Meaning "Where Bears Are Hunted"

Anticosti, the island so much discussed at present, was called Assumption by Jacques Cartier when he first sighted it in 1534, and Assumption by a later explorer, but within the next hundred years had become generally known as Anticosti, from it, is said, an Indian word Natoucosti, meaning "where bears are hunted."

Derivation from Spanish words "the coast" has been suggested, but the Indian origin is more likely. —Toronto Star.

Fulfilled Early Promise

Sir Joseph Thomson One Child Prodigy Who Made Good

Youthful prodigies do not always bear out their early promise, but that certainly cannot be said of Sir J. J. Thomson, Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, to whom the coveted Kelvin Medal has been awarded for his eminent services to engineering science.

Sir Joseph entered Owens College, Manchester, at the age of 14, to take the engineering course. The event caused such a stir that the age limit was immediately raised!

But the boy quickly proved his worth, and since then 20 universities have elected him with degrees, J.C. learned societies with fellowships, nine others with medals.

He was one of the original holders of the Order of Merit, and he won the Nobel Prize for Physics 32 years ago—a record of distinction that is probably unique. —News of the World.

Has Plenty Of Cheese

Germany Urges People To Eat More And Keep Well

"Eat cheese and keep well," the German Government suggested—with small effects. Floated loaded with cheese from the most pungent lunger to the mildest cream round their ostentatious way through Berlin's residential streets with the "eat cheese" banners. Cheese is one of the few things of which there is a glut on the German market.

Julius Caesar was very punctilious in regard to the management of his household, and once put his baker in irons for serving him with one kind of bread and his guests with another.

These are times when a man needs a new hat but does without it. However, it's different with his wife.

Jamaica Starts Big Task

Will Spend $2,500,000 On "Back To The Land" Scheme

Acting Governor C. C. Woolley, of Jamaica, has announced the island's government would make the immediate up to $250,000 ($2,500,000) "back to the land" scheme as a step toward solving the colony's unemployment problem.

A special department with an experienced staff would be set up to devote its attention to the task. Land would be bought by the government and sold to the people on easy terms. Agricultural implements, seeds, roots and stock would be provided and the services of expert agriculturists would be available, he said.

Although great ice sheets now exist only in the polar regions, the earth is still in an Ice Age, since some six million square miles are blanketed in ice.

THE SUFFERING SERVANT.

Golden text: For the Son of man also came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. Mark 10:45.

Lesson: Mark 15:22-39.

Devotional reading: Isaiah 53:4-6.

Explanations And Comments

The Crucifixion, Mark 15:22-27. The knoll outside Jerusalem to which Jesus was brought to be crucified is called Golgotha in Greek, Calvary in Latin, words which mean "a skull," for it was skull-shaped. As was customary before a crucifixion, Jesus was offered a stupefying drink, wine and myrrh, but he refused it. Then at the third hour of the day they crucified him.

His garments were the perquisites of the executioners. His head, shoulders, arms and hands were visible would supply one article for each of the four men. They cast lots to decide who should have, and also the tunic which was without seam, and the sash which was without seam, and the sash which was without seam, and the sash which was without seam.

Above his cross was written, in Hebrew, in Greek, and in Latin, "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews." (Jn. 19:20). "The King of the Jews" is a title which Jesus never claimed, and which he never accepted. He was a man of peace, and he was a man of love.

Darkness, Desolation and Death, Mark 15:36-38. From noon till three in the afternoon there was darkness over the land.

At the ninth hour Jesus uttered with a loud voice in Aramaic the first sentence of the Twenty-second Psalm, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

"Behold, he calleth Elijah," was what some bystander said. There were many stories of Elijah's appearing to rescue men in peril. "No Jew could have mistaken him (or Eli) for the man of Elijah," exclaims Dr. Edersheim, "nor yet misinterpreted a quotation of Psalm 22:1 as a call for the prophet."

Some one ran and held up to Jesus' mouth a sponge fastened to the end of a reed and filled with sour wine, the customary drink of the Roman soldiers. This was in answer to his cry, "I thirst." (Jn. 19:28). "Behold, he calleth Elijah," was what some bystander said. There were many stories of Elijah's appearing to rescue men in peril. GLASGOW—SCOTLAND

Glasgow stands at the waist of Scotland, and Scotland is the fairest land you will see from the Fastnet Rock to Damascus. And what country has had so romantic a history? Remember Mary Stuart, remember Darnley. Go to Glenfinnan, the rugged hill in the Western Highlands, where Bonnie Prince Charlie unfurled the Royal Standard in 1745. Follow his triumphant route down south to Edinburgh, and then on to Prestonpans, where, to the skirl of the pipes, the Highlanders drove the English dragoons before them "like rabbits." Wherever you go in Scotland, the ghosts of the past will accompany you. Glasgow is the front door to Europe. Turn the key and go right in.—Ex.

THE SASKATCHEWAN ELECTION

The results of the Saskatchewan election are a surprise in Alberta to both Social Crediters and their opponents. Naturally, Social Crediters in Alberta expected their leader to win a sweeping victory in that province on his own virtues and those of his party, while opponents of Mr. Aberhart expected him to sweep on to victory on a platform of falsehood and misrepresentation such as he has used with so much success in this province.—MacLeod Gazette.

Wasn't it about a year or so ago that our Social Credit government and their supporters were hurling threats that if the banks, mortgage companies, life insurance companies, the press, and all those who did not see eye to eye with them, they would be put out of business and run out of the province? How come that our premier wires Ottawa, urging that the banks be forced to stay in when he (Mr. Aberhart) wants them to get out? That kind of reasoning is decidedly of the added variety. If this is Social Credit logic, then the gentleman who defined it as "start, stop and reverse," knew his blue manqué.—Trochu Tribune.

THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Foreigners complain of the difficulty of learning the English language, and one must admit there is something to be said for their plaints, though after it has been mastered it is the most expressive language in the world. The Blairmore Sun gives some reasons for the difficulty experienced by the foreigner in learning the language:

- A flock of ships is called a fleet.
- A fleet of sheep is called a flock.
- A flock of girls is called a bevy.
- A bevy of wolves is called a pack.
- A pack of thieves is called a gang.
- A gang of angels is called a host.
- A host of porpoise is called a shoal.
- A shoal of fish is called a school.
- A school of buffalo is called a herd.
- A herd of seals is called a pod.
- A pod of whales is called a gam.
- A gam of lions is called a pride.
- A pride of children is called a troop.
- A troop of partridges is called a covey.
- A covey of beauties is called a galaxy.
- A galaxy of ruffians is called a horde.
- A horde of rubbish is called a heap.
- A heap of oxen is called a drove.
- A drove of blackguards is called a mob.
- A mob of worshippers is called a congregation.
- A congregation of theatregoers is called an audience.
- An audience of peacocks is called a muster.
- A muster of doves is called a flight.
- A flight of larks is called an exaltation.
- And if they are starlings it's murmuration.
- A murmuration of bees is called a swarm.
- A swarm of foxes is called a skulk.
- A skulk of pigs is called a sty.
- A sty of dogs is called a kennel.
- A kennel of cats is called a nuisance.

A little schoolboy was once asked by an inspector which he would rather have—half an orange or eight sixteenths. "Half," said the boy. "Why?" asked the inspector, who could discern no distinction. "Because," said the pupil, "with the sixteenths you lose such a lot of juice."—Halifax Herald.

EDDIE, THE AD MAN

THE BUSINESS MAN WHO DOESN'T ADVERTISE IS LIKE THE FELLOW WHO WINKS AT HIS GIRL IN THE DARK—HE KNOWS WHAT HE'S DOING, BUT NOBODY ELSE DOES

H. S. Patterson, son of H. S. Patterson, K.C., and Stuart Shaw, son of Joseph Shaw, K.C., have passed the Alberta Bar Association's special examination in practice which entitled them to be admitted to the Bar. They have been articulated in Calgary for the past year, and will shortly be admitted to the Alberta bar.

The following were elected officers of the Coleman Miners' Association on Sunday last: Bert Garrett, president; Jerry Lonsbury, vice-president; E. Houghton, secretary-treasurer; W. Lees, W. Hayson, T. McCloy and T. McLeod, International pit committee; T. Goldring, W. Williams, W. Chapman and E. Houghton, McGillivray pit committee.

Aberhart has done everything he could to drive banks out of Alberta. Now that some places are being deprived of bank services, he is protesting to the Federal government. Aberhart is indeed a law unto himself—and himself alone! He and his experts have the finest opportunity to show how they can operate a banking service. The big obstacle would be that no sensible person would place any money on deposit in their bank.—Coleman Journal.

FISHING! FISHING!

(By Horace Heape)

When troubles seem to overtake,
And friends who once were true forsake;
When fears and doubts each moment
shake,
Go fishing.

Just grab that pole and can of bait,
Go right away—don't hesitate—
Tomorrow may be just too late
For fishing.

There's something in that morning
breeze;
There's comfort in the whispering
trees;
There's visions rare one often sees
While fishing.

District inspector under the Alberta game branch at Calgary, Frank Ward is being transferred to Macleod, where he will organize a new inspectorate comprising Clareholm to the international boundary and Pincher Creek to Lethbridge. His duties will combine administration of both the game and fisheries branches of the department of lands and mines.

No less than five rural banks in Alberta will close their doors in the near future, Bank of Montreal branches at Islay and Manville, and Bank of Commerce branches at Delia, Vegreville and Bawlf. Reasons given are that "increased taxation and conditions generally make it impossible to operate at a profit," and that "it was necessary to curtail expenses as far as possible by concentrating business."

Who was it butted into the affairs of another province? He went; he saw; he bellowed his hardest. He went with hackles up and his tail waving to the breeze, and he came back with the aforesaid tail between his legs. He fell and great was the fall of him. If anybody knows who this is and can get hold of it they are requested to send it express collect to the Social Credit Board, Edmonton, and receive reward, and no questions will be asked.—The Okotoks Review.

BELLEVUE HAPPENINGS

Miss Freda Wisniewski, of Medicine Hat, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wisniewski.

C. W. Ray, Misses Gladys Knowles and Yvonne Harrison and Master Gary Ward were Lethbridge visitors on Thursday last, where they attended the A. G. Barnes circus.

Mrs. D. A. Perry, of Strathmore, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dave Hutton.

Mrs. Woodywise, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tucker, left on a two weeks' vacation to be spent in Vancouver.

Harold Cox, who has been in B.C. for the past few months, is visiting his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. William Cox.

Miss Dorothy Barlass was hostess at a delightfully arranged luncheon at 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Kathleen Cosstick, bride-elect of the month. Following lunch, the hostess, on behalf of the assembled young ladies, presented the guest of honor with a beautiful rose satin bedspread. In a few well chosen words, Miss Cosstick thanked her friends for the gift. Bridge was then enjoyed on the lawn, the honors for which went to Miss C. Kuryluk.

Mrs. Darby and children, of Calgary, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cosstick.

With wild flowers as a background, a very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Bellevue United church on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when Rev. R. Upton united in marriage Elizabeth, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wisniewski, to John, eldest son of Mr. J. Rushton and the late Mrs. Rushton, of Coleman. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Upton. She was beautifully gowned in a floor-length dress of white satin with Queen Elizabeth collar. Her silk net veil, which flowed in soft folds to the hem of her skirt, was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was composed of sweethearts and tulle and roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Freda Wisniewski, of Medicine Hat, who was also becomingly attired in a pale blue point d'esprit over tulle, with matching white accessories. Her bouquet was of roses and carnations. The groom was supported by Mr. George Snoad, of Coleman. Bridesmaids were the Misses Anne Wisniewski, Elizabeth Ostrensky, Dorothy Simons and Grace Goodwin, who were gowned alike in pale blue with white accessories. They were escorted by the Messrs. Frank Scoff, and Jerry Avelado. During the signing of the register, the United church choir, of which the bride was a member, sang "O Perfect Love."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Rushton have taken up residence in Coleman, where Mr. Rushton is employed with the Scott Fruit Co. The best wishes of their friends go with the happy couple in their married life.

COMPETITION FIXES PRICES TO PRODUCERS AND OIL CONSUMERS

Crude oil produced in one field may and does influence the price of crude oil produced in another, and if any evidence of it is needed, refer to the case of Alberta and Montana.

Before the tariff board, F. G. Cottle, chief auditor of the Alberta board of public utilities commissioners, showed how Montana production had affected the price on the Turner Valley output.

Montana oil cannot compete with Turner Valley in supplying Calgary refineries, because Turner Valley is much nearer to Calgary and enjoys the advantage of lower transport costs. But Turner Valley is producing more crude than Calgary refineries can use and so has to ship part of its output east to refineries at Moose Jaw, Regina, and Winnipeg.

Thus the price of Turner Valley production in the field has to be at a level which will enable the crude to be laid down at these distant points, (including freight) at prices which will be competitive with the price at which Montana crude can be laid down. As Mr. Cottle pointed out, Montana crude cannot compete with Turner Valley crude at Calgary, but it can at other points.

Similarly, Turner Valley crude actually affected the price of Montana crude right in Montana although it never got into that state in commercial quantities. Perhaps the issue in which the prairies are most interested is that Turner Valley producers, the pipe lines, refineries, and railroads, have adjusted their operations so that western consumers are able to buy their products at substantially lower prices than would have prevailed had the Alberta fields not been developed. Producers at the same time are getting a fair price for their output.

Shark Fishing New West Coast Sport

The spunky trout of the Lahrentians and the Canadian Rockies, the scrappy bass of Northern Ontario, the huge muskies at French River have all been put on their mettle by a fishing fish new to Canadian sportmen—the shark, killer of the deep.

Basking sharks have been found in large numbers on the east coast of Vancouver Island. While they seem harmless as far as swimmers are concerned, they are a terror on the end of 500 yards of 50-pound test line.

Many fishermen have tried shark fishing with great success.

A Victoria man, McIntyre Matterson, caught the first shark. It weighed 596 pounds. The record so far is a 987-pounder landed by Commodore May, of California.

Equipment is simple and not too expensive and the sport is thrilling beyond imagination. When the shark first takes the bait, a salmon from six to eight pounds, the fisherman thinks he has hooked the bottom. Then the fun starts. With mad rushes and plunges he churns the water into foam. He has a nasty habit of turning on the boat and snapping at the line or rolling on it and severing it with his file-like skin. You never know what he will do next.

About the time you think your back will break or your arms torn-out, you work the fish closer to the boat. It is suicidal to try to land such a large fish and it is customary to give him a coup de grace with a 30-30 rifle.

It is a grand sport and a new one for Canadians but interest is so keen, judging by inquiries received by the Canadian Pacific tourist department at Montreal, that many Canadian and American sportsmen are expected to visit forces in a war on sharks from July to September, the time of year they appear in greatest numbers.

"MEN AT WORK!"

The most cheerful sign on the road

"MEN AT WORK" is an encouraging, cheerful sign upon the highway.

It is the happiest sign on the business highway too. Business enterprise, making wise use of banking service, is the mainspring of employment.

The contractor responsible for that "Men at Work" sign gets the job of building that stretch of highway by being the lowest responsible tenderer.

Not always does he have the ready money to buy all the materials, pay wages and build it out of his own resources. He goes to the bank and, having assets and a good reputation, he negotiates such advances as he may need.

He orders materials, sets men to work. As the job proceeds, engineers' certificates enable him to collect from those with whom he contracted, and the work goes on.

The highway finished, the bank is repaid. Such repayments enable the bank to supply credit to other responsible borrowers.

A manufacturer gets a large order, with an early time limit for delivery. With only a hundred men, his factory cannot turn out the articles within the time required. With more men he can do it—but he lacks sufficient cash.

Operating his factory, as a going concern, with a profitable order and having a reputation for integrity, he asks the bank to lend him what he needs to pay wages.

The bank makes him a loan. He takes on more men. They get wages. The goods are turned out, delivered and paid for. The manufacturer repays the bank with the agreed interest.

He has his profit and can spend some money developing new business to keep his men employed.

How does a bank make these advances—where does the money come from?

Banks, having branches throughout Canada, mobilize the surplus funds of millions of depositors, large and small, and, based upon them, make credit available throughout the country as may be required.

Millions of little sums represent the toil, production and lifetime savings of Canadians—your fellow-citizens.

Safeguarding these deposits is the bank's first care.

Deposits of $1,000 or less—most of them much less—are owned by 3,770,000 out of Canada's 4,084,000 savings depositors. The total of all bank savings deposits in Canada is nearly $1,584,000,000; the average savings deposit in a bank is only $387.

Widely safeguarded by Canada's chartered banks these deposits furnish credit that keeps "men at work" when used by Canadian business and industry—producing new realizable wealth from Canada's great resources. The country and all its people benefit.

In the field of business deposits, out of an average of 660,000 "current" accounts, $96,000 amount to $1,000 or less.

Savings deposits are, primarily, the basis on which banks can make loans.

Only the confidence of the people and their willingness to leave their money on deposit, enable a bank to lend money and—at small profit-margin to itself—serve the community.

We have mentioned the contractor and the manufacturer. The same process stimulates employment throughout the whole fabric of production, industry and commerce.

Loans to agriculture and for marketing agricultural products totalled in 1937, $88,294,000—9.0 per cent. of all ordinary bank loans shown on the return to the Minister of Finance, October 31st, 1937.

Of this sum $57,490,000 went to farmers, cattlemen and fruit raisers and $30,804,000 to grain dealers, seed merchants and grain exporters.

Other bank loans went to municipalities and school districts; wholesalers, retailers, manufacturers of and dealers in lumber, pulp and other forest products; fishermen; fish packers and curers; public utilities including transportation companies; stockbrokers and bond dealers; provincial governments; mining men; churches, parishes; hospitals; and to charitable and religious institutions.

Canada's chartered banks defend and protect the safety of the funds of depositors—the millions of thrifty souls who have described, whose life-savings they entrust to their banks.

No Canadian depositor, even through the world-shaking events of recent years, has had to fear for the safety of a single dollar lodged with Canada's chartered banks.

The funds of depositors are their own—not a reservoir from which everybody may draw at will for any and every new financial experiment.

The Curse Of Education

"The best things in life are not given a percentage."

The foregoing is just a small extract from a speech made to a class of graduating Normal school students by Dr. J. S. Thomson, president of the University of Saskatchewan, to give point to a protest which he uttered against the school system of examinations as it exists in Canada and which he appropriately described as "a curse."

It is indeed gratifying to find leaders of education in the Western provinces voicing such a viewpoint on the inelastic method of categorizing school students—of pigeon-holing them under valuations elicited as a result of the application of a rule-of-thumb system of examinations.

As Dr. Thomson said: The grading of A's, B's and C's, and this multiplication of credits until students don't know where they are, "leaves no little place for all the noble things in life that can never be put in terms of percentage."

While the press report of Dr. Thomson's address did not enumerate those nobler things towards which the student mind should be guided, it is not difficult to enunciate them and they can all be incorporated in the single term "good citizenship," provided the definition of that phrase is made to include all that it should designate.

Good Citizenship

And good citizenship means much more than interest in government, in community affairs, in neighborhood welfare and the like. It involves the development of good sportsmanship, unselfish interest in the welfare of others and the will to recognize and place human values above material considerations and the advancement of moral and spiritual welfare.

It is because these things are, and should be, the ultimate goal of the educational system that the personality and character of the teacher should be the ranking qualification; for, as the teacher is, and not as the teacher says, so will the pupil be during the formative years of the child's career. The teacher is destined to implant an unconscious and ineradicable mark on the mind of the impressionable youth under his or her care.

The value of the teacher to the children, to the community and the nation should be measured in terms of character and integrity rather than in brilliance of erudition. A teacher of strong individuality and mediocre academic attainments is worth immeasurably more to the future generation than one who is superlatively clever but lacks the attributes which inspire respect and admiration. The teacher who combines both is a jewel indeed and for such, adequate compensation cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

In the tuition of those things which as Dr. Thomson says, cannot be registered in percentages, an ounce of practice is worth a ton of precept, to paraphrase a time-honored saying. The teacher who renders only lip service to the nobler things of life is not worth his or her salt when the yardstick of real values is applied, but the teacher who is a living example of the aspirations which he or she holds up to the pupils as the lodestar of their careers is a pearl of great price.

While the teacher may have to conform, through regulatory control, to the examination system in greater or less degree, he or she will perform his or her greatest and most valuable work when moulding children into future citizens with ambitions to reach for the highest and best that life can give, not in material terms, but in the moral and spiritual realms, and this can only be done by the influence of example.

A Permanent Influence

The teacher who plays the game of life on the basis of the highest rules will exert an unconscious influence for good on his or her charges that will never be extinguished throughout life, and fortunate, indeed, is the child whose future destiny is placed in such competent and reliable hands.

Nor will that impelling force fade with the passing of the teachers' charges. It will be passed on from generation to generation. Like the ripple made in the water by the cast stone or the impulse surging through the ether from a radio transmitter, one may say how far it will go or measure the extent of its ultimate effect.

The teachers about to embark on their difficult and highly responsible task of laying the foundation for a new and better nationhood were urged by Dr. Thomson to set before themselves three standards, or, as he called them, "attitudes of life," the absolute worth of the individual human being, the building of character and the value of citizenship, and pointed out the importance of selflessness with the appropriate comment that "the way to be unhappy is to fall in love with yourself."

Excellent advice which, if it falls on receptive ground, is bound to yield rich dividends to the country in the future.

Paris Wrecking Crews Find More Gold Coins In House

The old house at 53 Rue Mouffetard, Paris, where wrecking crews found a $90,000 treasure in gold Louis, has yielded another and richer hidden hoard.

Workmen broke down a new section of wall and brought to light a leather and cloth bag packed with ancient gold pieces. Although an estimate of the worth of the new find was not immediately available, officials said it was greater than $90,000.

The currency found first had been willed by Louis Nivelle, King Louis' squer, to his niece, Anne Louise Claude Nivelle, according to the testamentary document found there.

Brain Waves

Specialists Find That Electric Current Flows From The Brain

New light on the human brain, in the form of long, low-voltage waves of direct electric current flowing from grey matter in the skull was discovered by the American Psychiatric Association at San Francisco.

This direct current is positive during consciousness, negative in unconsciousness and apparently the forerunner of death when it lasts too long.

Its discovery amazed the brain specialists for two reasons. The brain gives off the direct current simultaneously with alternating current. One wave of the direct current lasts 10 to 30 minutes while the "A.C." pulsates at an average of 10, a second.

Not Good Publicity

Successes In Canada Not Stressed As Much As Failures

"Canada," said Lord Tweedsmuir to the visiting Scottish farmers the other day, "gets round publicity: too much for the failures and too little for the successes." There is much truth in that remark, states the Ottawa Journal.

The world hears about our Western drought, the problem of our railroads, but much less about our solid accomplishments. Perhaps the world does not realize that this small population in half a century has made a nation out of scattered settlements, has made a good start in the development of rich natural resources, is one of the foremost trading countries on earth. Sometimes in the face of immediate difficulties we fail to bear these facts in mind even among ourselves.

The trouble is that our accomplishments are in the "blue books," but our difficulties are news and our successes are not sufficiently understood abroad. Perhaps it isn't news, but it is a fact of first importance that alongside an English-speaking nation of 130 millions we have preserved and developed a British country, solidly devoted to the British tradition. The progress of agriculture, of industry, of mining may not be news, as drought is news, but that progress has been a vital factor in world history of the past half century.

There isn't much we can do in the matter, of course. We shall just have to carry on in the knowledge that even in the United States, where people still believe Canada a place of perpetual ice and snow inhabited mainly by Eskimo and Inuit, we have not need of no inferiority complex on that account.

Prime Ministers

Sixteen Ministers And Eleven Premiers In Canada Since Confederation

During the 71 years since Confederation there have been 16 Ministers and there have been 11 Prime Ministers in Canada. In the 34 years up to 1901, there were seven Prime Ministers and in the 37 since then only four have been added to the list says "Canada's Weekly."

The most frequent changes in Premiership came after the death of Sir John A. Macdonald, in 1891. Between that year and 1896 there were five Prime Ministers—Sir John Abbott, Sir John Thompson, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Sir Charles Tupper and Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Sir John Macdonald was leader of the government for about 19 years, the longest period, but Sir Wilfrid Laurier, leader for 15 years, had the longest unbroken term. Sir Charles Tupper had the shortest term, only two months and one week. Sir Robert Borden was in office for eight years and 10 months. Mr. Mackenzie King, the present head of the government, has been Prime Minister for about 11 years.

All Mr. Meighen's predecessors, except Alexander Mackenzie, were given titles. Sir Charles Tupper received a baronetcy. The widow of Sir John Macdonald was created a baroness. Messrs. Arthur Meighen, W. L. Mackenzie King and R. B. Bennett have remained untitled.

The special branch of Scotland Yard, co-operating with the Home Office, has launched a thorough check of aliens residing in the United Kingdom, who are estimated to number around 200,000.

Officers are questioning an average of 50 a day and have found many for whom they were searching came to the country last year for the Coronation, renewed their visas last November and have neglected to renew them again.

Immigration officials also are keeping a closer watch for aliens entering at British ports.

Refugees From Austria

Seeking Countries That Promise Tolerance And Freedom

With refugees pouring out of Germany and particularly from Austria, the League of Nations refugee office in London is redoubling its efforts to gain entry for them into countries whose institutions promise tolerance and freedom.

Australia has just signed an agreement accepting 600 annually and the Canadian government soon will be approached to make at least an equal contribution towards a solution of this problem.

Most of the refugees are Jews, although 20 per cent. are Christian Jews. The German Jewish aid committee, on behalf of the Orthodox Jews, has raised a large fund guaranteeing the Australian government that none of the settlers will become public charges for five years. A similar guarantee will be given the Canadian government, it was learned. If the immigration regulations will be relaxed to the extent of permitting entry for 500 annually, the British government is accepting thousands of refugees without guarantee.

Oxford has awarded two of them major chairs at its own universities to expertise seeking the services of outstanding scholars and scientists among the refugees.

Must Serve Seven Years

Before R.C.M.P. Constables Are Given Permission To Marry

Reports from western Canada that some Royal Canadian Mounted Police constables are resigning because of new marriage regulations could not be confirmed at Ottawa, although officers of the force said it is possible some are leaving for that reason.

After Col. S. T. Wood took command of the force last winter he increased from five to seven years the time a constable must serve before he is given permission to marry. In the early days of the force a man had to serve 12 years before he could marry and this was gradually reduced. Sir James MacBrien, who preceded Col. Wood, reduced it from seven to five years.

The increase back to seven years was made because it was considered the proportion of married men among the constables was too large and added considerably to the force. It also increased expenses. When a constable is transferred there is the expense of moving his family. Married men also draw double rations and are allowed additional pay to cover separate living quarters.

Constables who have been four years in the force when the seven-year regulation came into effect will be granted permission to marry when their five years are up; but those who have only one or two years' service will have to wait until they have been in the force seven years.

Advice From Earl Baldwin

Sees Danger In Britain From Mechanized Reading And Thought

Mechanized amusement, mechanized reading and mechanized thought, says Earl Baldwin, constitute a danger in Great Britain to-day. The former prime minister, opening a community hall at Wilton, England, declared: "Our England has always been a country of individuals, of individual thought, of individual work, of individual minds, and I pray God it may always be so."

Modern transport had increased the influence of the town on the country. The same newspapers read, in town and country.

"The danger of that," contended Lord Baldwin, "is getting a kind of standardized, suburban, mechanized mind, and it is, in our view as Englishmen, the improper use of these media that in many countries has forced upon the people a regimentation of thought which we believe is a great danger for the future."

Hoping the community hall would be a means of recreation and enlightenment, he warned: "Be yourselves of the old English countryside. Be your own performers for your own amusement. Be yourselves, think your own thoughts, act as you will; be individual, be independent."

BRITAIN ORDERS MILITARY PLANES FROM U. S. FIRMS

London.—Great Britain's air mission to North America produced its first development when the air ministry announced Britain had ordered 400 military planes from United States and tentative proposals have been formulated to increase production in Canada.

It was understood the purchases in the United States would cost more than $7,000,000 ($35,000,000) and would be deliverable in two years. Two hundred planes were ordered from the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation of Burbank, Calif., for general reconnaissance. An order for a similar number for advanced training duties was placed with North American Aviation, Inc., of Inglewood, Calif.

In regard to Canada the official announcement stated "the mission pursued certain discussions with firms in Canada as to the possibility of bringing into being increased capacity in that country for the manufacture of aircraft on a long-range plan. The government have under consideration certain tentative proposals which have been formulated as a result of those discussions."

Informed sources said both reconnaissance and advanced training planes were required in comparatively small quantities but by certain dates to speed up the air program. Those contracted for will be outfitted with machine-guns and bombing equipment.

The announcement brought an attack on the air ministry by Oliver Simmonds, Conservative member of parliament and head of an aircraft accessories firm.

He declared the present purchases "should not form a precedent" and that in the future such American types as we desire to purchase should be constructed in Canada."

"It should be realized," Mr. Simmonds said, "that there has been no complete a failure on the part of the air ministry to plan its supplies of aircraft from home and dominion sources, this unprecedented move would not have been necessary."

"If in the light of immediate requirements of the royal air force and our own home production, Sir Kingsley Wood (air secretary) feels that this purchase is essential, many are willing, as I am, to concede him this point, regretting, however for many reasons it may be."

"Overriding other considerations in the whole matter, however, at the moment our first-line strength is half that of Germany, and our own production of aircraft is likewise only about one-half of that country's. If the government may be thought, in making this decision, to realize how gravely exerted the country is at this position, then something valuable may have been gained."

Ottawa.—A grant of $5,000 to the Workers' Educational Association, Toronto, "to assist its Dominion-wide efforts in providing during the fiscal year 1933-34, educational classes for laboring men and women in various centres," is authorized by an order-in-council tabled in the House of Commons. The grant is made under the provisions of the Unemployment and Agricultural Assistance Act.

Drouth In Europe

Agricultural Situation Alarming States Chicago Business Man After Survey

New York.—A drouth "worse than any in 100 years," combined with unreasonable frosts, insect pests and plant and domestic animal diseases, has created a "very alarming" agricultural situation in Europe, Howard D. Salins of Chicago, managing director of the Flax and Fibre Institute of America, said.

He returned from a two-month trip abroad during which he made an agricultural survey for the institute.

Salins said that the European farming picture had become so "amazing" in the last two months that if the United States had the agricultural products to send abroad "our farmers would be on a high plane of prosperity."

"In Europe, including Great Britain, they have been hit with a drouth worse than any in 100 years," he said. "There isn't a country that hasn't been hit quite hard."

The drouth began in March and was almost continuous until the middle of May, he said, now there were frosts into May, nipping what crops had pushed above ground. He also said farm animals had suffered serious epidemics of hoof and mouth disease.

"Italy agriculturally is in a deplorable condition," he said. "Russia has been hit. Germany has had not only drouth, but such heat that fires have burned crops. The potato crop in Ireland has been ruined. The five-year plan of the dictatorship have been ruined."

Salins added that "sources like Argentina, Australia and New Zealand have also been hit. New Zealand with a 30-day drouth—the worst in her history," and that this made the world agricultural situation worse.

Criticizes Government

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen Refers To Unemployed Occupying Vancouver Post Office

Ottawa.—In Vancouver the government is "bending its neck to a sit-down strike" and transferring responsibility for the unemployment to that of the municipality, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, said in the senate.

"I suppose if the unemployed took possession of the public buildings, the government would assume the same attitude and say the matter was up to the municipality," he added.

The senate was considering the government measure providing $30,000,000 in Dominion loans to municipalities for self-liquidating public works. The loans must be guaranteed by the provinces.

Mr. Meighen's reference was to the unemployed taking possession of Vancouver post office. The "spineless government" in Ottawa was just sitting down and letting matters go. To think that such a state of things could be started in the property of the people of Canada "was too awful for Canadians to contemplate," he said.

Interest Not Paid

Britain And France Protest To Berlin Over Austrian Loan

London.—Britain and French trustees of 1933-34 loans to Austria lodged a strong protest in Berlin against non-payment of monthly interest instalments due June 1.

Britain, France, Italy and other European countries are guarantors of the capital and interest of the loans, but it is understood Italy did not sign the protest.

The Bank for International Settlement at Basel, Switzerland, announced it had protested to Germany against failure to pay interest due on June 1 on a 1930 Austrian government loan for which the bank acts as trustee.

These developments came shortly before Anglo trade and financial difficulties are scheduled to be resumed in Berlin on problems arising from Germany's annexation of Austria.

Broken Hill, Northern Rhodesia.—Charles Ross, noted elephant hunter who had killed 516 of the great pachyderms, was killed by his 617th victim, according to word received from the interior. Mr. Ross had put 14 bullets in the bull when the wound-maddened beast crushed him to the ground.

Chain Letters

Hamilton, Ont.—Times must be better. The chain letter racket that flourished here three years ago has revived. Instead of 10 cents, the customary amount asked previously, the letters demand 25 cents as the price of good fortune.

Taking Over New Duties

Winnipeg Newspaper Man To Become Editor Of Vancouver Paper

Vancouver.—W. L. MacTavish, editor-in-chief of the Winnipeg Tribune for the past 15 years, will become editor-in-chief of the Vancouver Daily Province, the latter newspaper announced. He will take over his new duties early in July.

Mr. MacTavish has spent his newspaper career in western Canada. In addition to his newspaper work he has been active in various public movements in Winnipeg, has been president of both the Canadian and Empire clubs there, and was regional chairman of the Dominion drama festival, directed the proceedings in Winnipeg last month.

First Crop Report

Shows Conditions Are Fairly Satisfactory In Prairie Provinces

Ottawa.—Crop conditions in the prairie provinces are fairly satisfactory with most of the wheat emerging and coarse grain seeding practically completed. It was stated in the Dominion bureau of statistics telegraphic crop report.

This was the first of a series of seven telegraphic reports covering crop conditions throughout Canada. Included in it is the second of a series of 15 weekly crop reports on conditions in the prairie provinces.

PROTEST AGAINST ATTACKS MADE ON BRITISH SHIPS

London.—The Associated Press said Great Britain was considering putting squarely before Premier Mussolini the matter of repeated Spanish insurgent attacks on British shipping. A foreign office spokesman was non-committal on the report.

Foreign Minister Viscount Halifax broke short a holiday to resume charge of the foreign office as public indignation mounted with each new bombardment of a British boat in Spain.

An insurgent seaplane shelled and machine-gunned the small British-owned Port of Ganda in Spanish government territory, sinking a British dredger and destroying other property with 30 bombs.

Some newspapers concluded Italian and German flyers in Spain were ignoring Franco's orders in continuing to single out ships flying the Union Jack for attack.

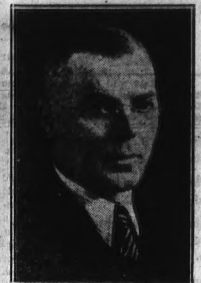

The Associated Press said it was leaving Great Britain is likely to take the problem up with Mussolini in Rome—there were even unofficial reports, The Associated Press added that she had already done so.

The Italian premier would presumably be asked, the dispatch added, to use his influence to have the insurgents halt the raids and remind them simultaneously of the possibly detrimental effect of the attacks on Anglo-Italian relations.

Even the word "sanctions" was which is now seldom used—was revived. The Associated Press added, during consideration of possible actions to impress upon General Franco the need for "respect towards British interests."

However the foreign office spokesman declared sanctions were not being considered in that quarter.

King's Birthday Honors

Sir Josiah Stamp, British Economist, Raised To Peerage

London.—Sir Josiah Stamp, the noted economist, who investigated Canadian trading in grain figures in 1931, was raised to the peerage in the King's birthday honors list, which created two viscounts and two barons. The King also conferred the rare and coveted Order of Merit on the distinguished scientist, Sir Arthur Eddington. The order is limited to 24 and is conferred chiefly on scientists and men of letters.

The King celebrated his birthday June 9, although actually the anniversary of his birth falls in December.

The new viscounts: Baron Stonehaven, former chairman of the Conservative party organization.

Baron Weir, former member of the air council, who resigned his position as adviser to the air ministry last month at the time Viscount Swinton's resignation as air secretary.

The new barons: Vivian H. Smith, chairman of the city of London Conservative organization.

Sir Josiah Stamp, the economist, who headed the grain futures inquiry in Canada in 1931.

Other honors included: Sir Donald Somervell, attorney-general, becomes a privy councillor.

Lewis R. MacGregor, Australian trade commissioner in Canada, becomes a Commander of the Order of the British Empire.

CLOSE EMBASSY

Report Chinese Foreign Office Is To Close At Tokyo

Hankow, China.—The Chinese foreign office announced that the Chinese embassy at Tokyo would suspend its functions and embassy staff members would return to China. The spokesman emphasized the move did not mean severance of diplomatic relations with Japan. He said it was prompted by a Japanese use of "underhand methods in disregard of international law to force the withdrawal of Chinese diplomatic and consular representatives."

Family Is Grateful

London.—The home office gave permission to Dr. Sigmund Freud to remain in Britain indefinitely. Dr. Ernst Freud, the 82-year-old Austrian Jewish psychoanalyst's son, expressed the family's gratitude to authorities.

New First Aid Post

Saskatchewan Red Cross Sends Equipment To Christopher Lake

Regina.—Equipment has been sent from Red Cross headquarters here to the first aid post at Christopher Lake. This post, located midway between Prince Albert and the national park, is the first one to be established in Saskatchewan.

It is set up in association with the St. John Ambulance Association and the Red Cross. The Red Cross supplies the equipment and the St. John Ambulance Association will supply the personnel. A branch of the St. John in Saskatoon intends to send graduates to look after the post in the summer. The first aid post will be open as soon as supplies arrive.

The Red Cross is sending an ambulance stretcher, a special cabinet of remedies and bandages, blankets, a large metal sign and other supplies, said W. F. Marshall, Red Cross commissioner.

Japanese Casualties

Recent Fighting Has Placed The Total Well Past 300,000

Shanghai.—Casualties in recent fighting in Central China have raised the Japanese total to well past 300,000 and the Chinese to more than 1,000,000, foreign military authorities estimated.

These estimates, based on undisclosed sources of information, said Japanese had lost 32,000 killed between April 1 and May 22, including fighting in Tientsin, Shanghai, Suichow and Kait in Shanghai province.

In the Shanghai and Hangchow area it was estimated the Japanese had lost 300 killed and 700 wounded, mostly in recent guerrilla fighting.

LIBERAL PARTY IS RETURNED IN SASKATCHEWAN

Regina.—The Patterson government has been returned to power with a decisive majority. Liberal strength held in every part of the province except an almost solid bloc of seats north of the Qu'Appelle river and east of Long Lake, where C.C.F., Unity and Social Credit made gains. In only four other ridings in Saskatchewan did the vote go against Liberals and some western seats went Liberal over many years of support for opposition parties.

Gains made by Co-operative Commonwealth candidates means doubling of their representation in the legislature and continuance as official opposition. Premier Patterson won his election in a straight fight with the C.C.F. in Cannington.

Six other members of his cabinet were returned but Hon. Charles Dunn, highways minister, went down to defeat in a bitter battle with F. J. Herman, Social Credit, in Melville. Hon. J. M. Parker, veteran of the last legislature, was defeated in a four-sided fight in Touchwood, where Tom Johnson, C.C.F., won out.

Hon. R. J. M. Parker, minister of municipal affairs, defeated Mrs. Gertrude Telford, C.C.F. nominee in Pelly, and retained the only Liberal seat in northeastern Saskatchewan.

Not represented in the legislature during the past four years, Conservatives again failed to elect a man though their young leader, J. G. Dieffenbacher, K.C., made a spirited fight in Arm River and lost by only a small margin to G. H. Danielson, Liberal member of the last house.

Obliterating the Social Credit threat, Saskatchewan gave the Co-operative Commonwealth party 10 seats in the new assembly, with George H. Williams, party leader, again the choice of the mid-western seat of Wadena.

Mr. Williams' team mates in the old assembly oddly enough went down to defeat, with the exception of L. H. Hanteman in Elrose. H. H. Kemper lost in Gull Lake, Clarence Stork in Swift Current and A. J. Macaulay in Cutknife.

Liberals more than held their strength in the drouth country. South of the South Saskatchewan and Qu'Appelle rivers only one opposition candidate was elected, Herman Warren, one-time Conservative member, defeating J. B. Smith, former Liberal member, in Bengough.

At the same time southwestern areas, formerly represented by two C.C.F. members, returned to the Liberal column.

In the complex array of 10 two-man fights, 21 three-sided fights, 13 four-sided fights and oddly assorted big city battles, 41 candidates lost their deposits, most of them Social Crediters.

CHINA APPEALS TO POWERS FOR ARMS EMBARGO

Shanghai.—General Chiang Kai-shek, leader of war-torn China, called upon friendly powers "to fulfill their treaty obligations by giving China positive assistance."

Chiang made the plea in a formal statement issued at Hankow, provisional Chinese capital, as his people fled before the invading Japanese, evacuating their homes in three cities in one of the greatest mass exoduses in recent history.

While Chiang declared China still was confident of "ultimate victory," he asked all friendly nations to aid China by economic sanctions, arms embargoes and trade boycotts against Japan, specifically recalling resolutions adopted by the League of Nations in support of China.

Roads were black with slowly plodding refugees fleeing Changchow, strategic Honan province railway junction, while civilians also fled from Hankow, south of the Yangtze river, and Canton, big port of south China.

Prepared to blast out what Chinese defences remain in Changchow, the Japanese hauled field artillery as they maintained a steady plane bombing of the area.

Twenty-one foreigners, including a number of missionaries, remained in Changchow, from which the main Chinese defences have been withdrawn.

Washington.—A stern demand by the United States government that Japan stop bombing non-combatant property in China drew an approving statement from Senator Norris (Ind., Nebraskan).

Norris suggested the possibility of cutting off American arms shipments to the Orient in an effort to curb aerial attacks and "slaughter of innocent persons."

The request for an end to attacks on non-military objectives was handed to Japanese officials at Tokyo by Joseph Grew, United States ambassador. The state department had instructed him to call the Japanese government's attention to a recent attack on the campus of the American-endowed University of Lingnan.

Bombs Worry France

Era Of Forbearance Is Past, Says French Premier

Paris.—The era of "forbearance" is past. Border defences will fire upon any plane attempting to cross the Franco-Spanish frontier, Premier Edouard Daladier told his chamber of deputies. He stated the identity of nine planes which bombed Ax-les-Thermes, France, had not yet been determined.

"Anti-aircraft defence batteries and other military weapons heretofore were only firing warning shots or signals," he said. "Hereafter they are to open fire as soon as a plane crosses the French frontier," regardless of its intentions.

Daladier said an entire pursuit squadron was based near the frontier and is in constant patrol. Fragments of the 26 bombs dropped by the "mystery" squadron of nine planes between the victrol and village of Orges are being carefully examined by government experts, Daladier said, intimating their findings may have "grave consequences."

Unemployed In Britain

Larger Number Attributed Partly To Registration Of Juveniles

London.—Latest unemployment figures showed a rise of 31,941 in a month and 382,000 compared with a year ago. Unemployed at May 16 totalled 1,778,905 with the increase marked in coal and cotton industries. The labor ministry attributed it partly to registration of juveniles who reached the school-leaving age at Easter.

Employed persons totalled 13,375,000, 15,000 below the previous month. Magazines Banned

Ottawa.—The department of national revenue announced that four magazines, published in the United States have been banned from Canada under the indecent publications items in the customs tariff. The magazines are Personal Romance, Private Detective, Ten Story Gang, and Love and Romance.

The Aberhart team failed to do good to the Saskatchewan crops.

It didn't take long for the Social Credit candidate to fade—twenty-five hours after being nominated he withdrew and forfeited $100. If that's an example of Social Credit, it's a funny business. You figure it out.—Shamavon Standard, Saskatchewan.

Why should Mr. Aberhart ask the other provinces to join with him in his challenge of the right of the Dominion government to disallow his provincial legislation when his legislation does not represent the will of the people of Alberta?

A wedding caravan of some six or seven cars, coming out from Hillcrest Saturday last, carried a string of novel trailers, including cooking stoves, high chairs, car axles, jerseys, scoop shovels and barb-wire fencing. The litter has since been gathered together and forwarded to an auto factory in the United States. The new car will likely arrive in about three weeks.

Long before this Joe Louis was more than thinking of S(ch)melling.

Isn't it time now that Mr. Aberhart went away back and sat down?
